Treating People Like You Like to be Treated!

When I got saved it was God's amazing grace that delivered me, and I will forever be grateful. I came from a deep pit of sin, and yet God our Heavenly Father accepted me and made me His child and put me in His family. Something I did not deserve! So when I see people in need or in sin, I always remember what God did for me, and try to treat others with the same grace I was given. God's undeserved Kindness. Even if I am mistreated by others.

Luke 6:31-36

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. KJV

In other words treat people the same way you like to be treated!

Matt 7:12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. KJV

Matt 7:12 "Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. This is the essence of all that is taught in the law and the prophets." NLT

To embody the grace you have received, consider these principles for treating others with kindness:

1. Remember your own imperfections and extend forgiveness.
2. Show compassion to those who are struggling or in need.
3. Practice patience, understanding that every-one is on their own journey.
4. Offer help without expecting anything in return.
5. Speak kindly and uplift others with your words.
6. Be humble and recognize that grace is a gift, not a reward.

Ephesians 4:32

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you."

Until the trumpet sounds, 1 Thess. 4:13-18

Our Only Food

It is true—we are what we eat. Jesus said His flesh is our “meat” or food. “Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you” (John 6:53).

“[They] said, ‘This is a hard saying; who can understand it?’” (verse 60). The Jews could not comprehend such a thought, and “many of His disciples went back and walked with Him no more” (verse 66).

If we relegate this eating of the Lord to the Communion table alone, we do not understand what Jesus meant. The Lord’s Supper is not just symbolic—rather, it reminds us that He became our source of life through death.

We are to come daily to eat and drink of Him. The more we eat of Him, the more spiritual life will be demonstrated in us. We have an open invitation to come to His table to eat and become strong. Partaking of Christ is to feed on God’s Word and commune with Him in the prayer of faith.

When sheep are not fed, they grow skeletal and weak, becoming easy prey for the enemy. But God has provided a way to make every child of His strong to resist the enemy. This strength comes from eating the Bread of God sent down from heaven. Our spiritual health and strength depend on this.

I see in these days a remnant ministry made up of servants and handmaidens anointed to come into the fullness of Christ. They have no other source of life but Him. They are bursting forth with life because they have been in the presence of the Lord so often.

Jesus was in such close union with the Father, so committed to doing only His will, that the Father’s words became His very food and drink. He was daily sustained by hearing and seeing what the Father wanted, which was the result of spending much time alone with Him. We are to do the same.
